

SECRET

D
R
A
F
T

20 July 1951

1. General Situation:

a. Purpose & varied covered D-10 to D-40

(1) To devise a plan for the immediate utilization of OPC personnel and materiel in the event of war and to effect necessary regrouping and reorientation of command structure under NSC 10/2.

b. Assumptions

(1) War <sup>has been</sup> ~~may be~~ forced upon this country by the USSR and/or her satellites, ~~at any time.~~

(2) The complete integration of OPC and OSO will not have taken place during this period of this plan.

2. Mission: (1) Decentralized control operations

a. Headquarters OPC will so dispose itself on or about D-Day as to support to the maximum the war effort of the JCS and the commanders under the JCS.

3. Tasks:

a. Disposition of ALPC's office as shown in Annex C.

b. Disposition of Plans and Operations Staff as shown in Annex D.

c. Disposition of Administrative and Logistics Staff as shown in Annex E.

d. Disposition of Geographic Area Divisions as follows:

(1) WE and EE <sup>will be combined and</sup> establish a ~~combined~~ forward echelon reporting to <sup>SACEUR</sup> ~~Gen. Schuyler or his successor~~ and effecting such detachment to CINCEUR, CGUSFA and CINCPAC as directed.

SECRET

(2) NE and Africa will place personnel in all countries bordering the Mediterranean under the command of CINCNELM with appropriate staff reporting to CINCNELM. The balance of this division will remain under OPC control with forward headquarters at .

(3) WH Division will remain under <sup>CIA</sup> ~~OPC~~ control and continue assigned tasks.

(4) FE Division will establish forward echelon and establish ~~CINCPAC~~ in Hawaii with appropriate detachments reporting to <sup>CINCPAC</sup> ~~FECON~~ and CINCAL. FE Division will also establish liaison with CINCPAC. The balance of units to be controlled from OPC Washington through this forward echelon.

(5) SP Division will coordinate all activities with appropriate area divisions as indicated above.

X (1) All division staffs in Washington will continue support and administrative operations to include particular emphasis on training and resupply of special items on world-wide basis.

X (2) Each Division will prepare a support transition plan for both assets <sup>and personnel</sup> in this country and overseas to cover the following points:

- a. Disposition and status of personnel.
- b. Operations to be implemented <sup>or terminated</sup> on D-Day.
- c. Use <sup>and disposition</sup> of material assets.
- d. Communications.
- e. Organization of Headquarters in this country and overseas outlining the channels of communications with this Headquarters and with subordinate elements of the Division.

X (3) Plan will be reviewed and revised as necessary every 90 days

Approved For Release 2003/12/03 : CIA-RDP80-01065A000100120050-9 from date of issue with appropriate report rendered to C/PO at like intervals.

SECRET

4. Administrative and Logisite matters. Each division will indicate manner of resupply desired and point at which resupply and replacements will be received.
5. Command and Signal matters. Communications on technical matters will be direct to Headquarters Washington through appropriate subordinate OPC Headquarters.

SECRET